

The Ag Society provides opportunities for sponsorship of each phase of the development of the Fairgrounds. Contributions are tax-deductible and may take the form of cash, equipment or materials as well as in-kind contributions of labour. The levels and brief description of associated benefits are presented below. All sponsors are recognized each year in the Ag Society's annual newsletter which is circulated to over 100 members with additional copies distributed to all affiliated clubs and groups for their redistribution:

1. Platinum ($10,000 or more)
  - ✚ Extra-large position on permanent recognition board at the Fairgrounds
  - ✚ Participation at ribbon-cutting and other grand-opening ceremonies
  - ✚ Special recognition in articles and releases to regional media
2. Gold ($5,000 to $9,999)
  - ✚ Large position on permanent recognition board at the Fairgrounds
  - ✚ Participation at ribbon-cutting and other grand-opening ceremonies
  - ✚ Special recognition in articles and releases to regional media
3. Silver ($2,500 to $4,999)
  - ✚ Medium position on permanent recognition board at the Fairgrounds
  - ✚ Invitation to ribbon-cutting and other grand-opening ceremonies
4. Bronze ($1,000 to $2,499)
  - ✚ Small position on permanent recognition board at the Fairgrounds
  - ✚ Invitation to ribbon-cutting and other grand-opening ceremonies
5. Friends of the Ag Society ($100 to $999)

Contributions can be cash or in-kind donations of labour, materials, and/or equipment. Some contributions may be tax-deductible.